

Mayan explanation of what will happen 21.12.12

Energy from the center of the galaxy to earth will last 8 minutes and create a high level of consciousness in these 8 minutes and then we will forget. This cosmic ray will be the width and hit from the south of USA up to Guatemala.

The Mayan pyramids were going to capture the ray and extend this awakening for 3 months. But scientists want to use the ray to elevate their machines that are looking for antimatter. The scientists have tried to switch the poles of the earth which is when we had the earthquakes and tsunamis of Chile and Japan because the axis of the earth shifted about 18 degrees which is a lot. The scientists are all focused on Mexico for the 12-21 energy. They need mercury. Mercury is a bridge to attract magnetism. Mercury is all over Mexico in the form of the light bulbs that have the swirl form (energy saving bulbs).

The Mayans still exists and have a 3000-year-old memory. So the Mayans have built de-accelerators, able to absorb protons within 100 kil. of the pyramid, so the pyramid absorbs protons through resonance. If you put the circuit inside water, that absorbs it (can't generate electricity), the proton de-accelerates and nothing happens.

Oscillators can generate a frequency and pull the field, like a magnetic mattress throughout the country.

Protons collide and lose velocity.

To Help:

We can use make human magnets through geometry with movement (the Mayan showed the movement of arms in the air flapping like a bird?) The body becomes a big magnet activating the electromagnetic field of everyone around you.

Generate your own electromagnetic field to awaken consciousness. The more people work with turoidal (phonetic) form of geometry. Every 13 people creates a small pyramid. These people can trap the frequency and maintain the vibration longer to give everyone the opportunity to establish new patterns in their brain. The Mayans' work is to absorb the protons using the pyramids which will help maintain the vibration.

We're governed by our emotions and emotions teach you how to control other people. When you break away from that concept, science can serve humanity and we can work together with nature.

HOW TO HELP:

When using LED lights, transmit your love and illuminate the people. It works!

The Mayan work is to reinstall the pyramids; send out different geometries; help in Mexico.

WHAT TO DO FOR THE CHANGE IN CONSCIOUSNESS:

Take the consciousness, like an idea in your mind for a little while. If you don't bring it to fruit, the idea loses its force and falls away. It will last 8 minutes that "It's true, we're going to live in peace." But if you don't do anything about it, it will just feel like we had an emotion; that's it.

With the pyramids the Mayans are creating, they hope it allows the vibration to stay at least 3 months so they can establish the consciousness so people have time to create social groups, create plans and begin to create another way of living. This is the awakening.

How can we prepare ourselves for that moment?

Have pen and paper ready because many ideas will occur to you. Write them all down so you can figure out which ones are helpful and we're all prepared because we're already working with crystals, healing, cures. We are within the moment. We just need this impulse.

Continue doing what you're doing. You don't have to change. You can continue meditating, singing, whatever you know how to do. All the religions, all the philosophies have all come to help us prepare ourselves. There's nothing better than anything else. Everything has prepared us for this knowledge. The best is just to have more knowledge, so if mine doesn't work, maybe yours will and so within the moment we will achieve that unity. But unity doesn't mean we all do the same thing. It means we learn how to co-exist with all of us doing our own ways.

Occurrence of 8 mins of Raised Consciousness: Midday on Dec. 21st alignment begins and ends Dec. 23rd in the middle of the day. So if you look in the middle of that time, that will be the highest peak of alignment (when complete alignment will take place.)

Will there be 3 days of darkness? Because of planetary alignment, the first day will have a solar eclipse with the moon. The second day (Dec. 22) will have another eclipse but with Venus. The 3rd day (Dec. 23) in the a.m. is when night will prolong itself, so kind of like an eclipse but not the same thing. So they are like eclipses. They don't generate any bodily changes. Eclipses are markers, calendars.

What the Mayans are paying attention to is the impact of the electromagnetic impact of the center of the galaxy with the sun. The eclipses tell the dates when that will happen (Dec. 21-23). It won't be like night-time but more like a sunset. It's been very sensationalized. What's happening with the alignment will affect our electricity but it's not anything to be afraid of.

Will there be ascension on Dec. 21?

There will be increased vibration and awakening of consciousness. Everything we think, we have to act on and make it happen. It wouldn't do anything if we said, "Wow look, we're in a different dimension," but if you continue needing money, you're in the same dimension as you always were. If you arrive to a high dimension, that means everything will change. It has to mean we change.

When you hug someone, keep your palms to their back to feel the vibration of the other person.
